For most writers, there is always some aspect of the writing process, that doesn't come so easily. Typically, they are either great at developing plot but are a bit thin on character, or they develop great characters and then don't know what to do with them. When you go through this process and use the Complete Character Creator Worksheet, you'll create characters with great depth and you'll also have the hooks, the mood of the story and a very good idea of what to do in the storytelling.

Go through this process for each character, and you will have rich, interesting, multidimensional characters that feel real to you readership, characters that they care about deeply.
